Identity Of Bomb Thrower Is Picked From Bits Of Body; Philadelphia Believed Seat Of Plot Of Radicals To Overthrow U. S. Government By Assassinations With Infernal Machines

Two Changes In German Terms Are Considered

PARIS, June 3.—Two changes in the German peace terms, one territorial and the other financial, are being considered by the council of four, it became known today.

The financial question is the possibility of the acceptance of the German proposal to pay an indemnity of 100,000,000,000 marks, ($25,000,000,000) which would involve dissolution of the allied financial commission to which the German strongly objects. It is understood that this proposal has strong support in certain quarters.

The second proposal is for a plebiscite in Silesia in order to guarantee to Germany a coal supply from the Silesian mines.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

With the terms of peace with the exception of a few sections submitted to the Austrian representatives and with allied experts working on the basis that will be made to the German peace proposals, the work of the peace conference in Paris, is for the time being, marking time. There will be no meeting of the council of four today. President Wilson conferred with American specialists who have the German answer in hand and with the other members of the American delegation.

Dr. Karl Renner, Austrian chancellor and head of the peace mission of the former dual empire, is expected to leave Paris for Switzerland today and it is probable he will proceed as far as the Austrian frontier where he is expected to meet members of his cabinet who will discuss with him the peace terms. The Austrian reply is due June 17, but before that time it is probable there will be a number of sessions devoted to the peace conference by the Renner relative to different phases of the treaty.

MAY MODIFY TERMS

There has been no official indication of the date when the allied representatives will answer to the German peace proposals. It is said in some quarters that there is a disposition on the part of some of the members of the council of four to modify certain terms to which the Germans have made the most emphatic objections. President Clemenceau, of France, is reported standing firmly against any concessions to the Germans, while Premier Lloyd George is favorable to negotiations. Premier Orlando has not yet decided and President Wilson is reported as inclined to leave the final decision to the French and British.

An unconfirmed telegraph received from Copenhagen from Varde reported that the Estonian and Finnish troops have taken Petrozavodsk. The Estonians have been making rapid progress in the former Russian capital while the Finns have been approaching the city from the north and east.

REDS UNSEATED IN HUNGARY

Dispatches reaching Paris from Vienna by way of Basel, state that the Bolshevik regime in Hungary has been replaced by a government headed by Horthy, former minister of commerce in the Károlyi cabinet. Horthy is reported to have been invited to go to Paris to confer with allied representatives.

A German detachment is said to have violated the armistice agreement with the Poles and to have crossed the Polish frontier from East Prussia. The Warsaw dispatches tell of this action on the part of the Germans, and that the Poles launched a counter-attack, and succeeded in repulsing the invaders.

NEW PRESIDENT OF NORTHWESTERN HIT PACIFISTS EARLY

Dr. Lynn Harold Hoogh, new president of Northwestern University, is lecturing against pacifism within a few weeks after the war broke out in 1914. He urged preparedness and pleaded for America to define the issue and support the allies.

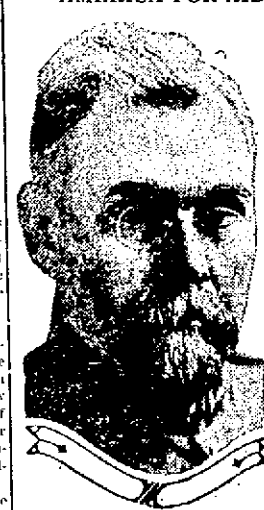

MEN PULLED FROM CARS IN TOLEDO

TOLEDO, O., June 3.—Disorder in connection with labor trouble at the Willys-Overland plant broke out afresh early today when men on their way to work in the plant were pulled from street cars, the windows of which were broken with stones. A crowd, estimated at 200, gathered near the plant at 6 o'clock and intercepted the cars containing men who have been removed work or others who have taken the place of former employees.

Twenty police officers were sent in within a few minutes and police and returned soldiers were basted to the plant. No arrests were made and no injuries have been reported. Police Chief Herbert broke up the crowd by starting a parade.

The Willys-Overland management, in commenting on trouble, said the men were all at work by 6 o'clock.

FAMOUS BELGIAN SURGEON THANKS AMERICA FOR AID

Col. D. Antoine Depage.

Col. D. Antoine Depage of the Belgian army, famous among scientists the world over for his remarkable feats in surgery during the war, is in America for several weeks to thank the people of this country for what they did for Belgium in the war. He was for four years in charge of front line hospitals in Belgium and he is head of the Belgian Red Cross. His wife perished on the Lusitania while taking home funds she had collected in America for Belgium. Dr. Depage will visit several cities all over the United States.

COLOGNE TO BE THE NEW CAPITAL

PARIS, June 3.—(Havas).—The allied forces of occupation will take no part in the movement for the establishment of a Rhine republic, the Journal says. The allied powers will observe an attitude of watchful waiting.

COLOGNE NEW CAPITAL

PARIS, June 3.—Cologne will be the capital of the new Rhine republic, which was proclaimed yesterday in several Rhine cities. The new government and national assembly will meet there, but the provisional government will sit at Wiesbaden. Portions of the proclamation have been telegraphed to the Echo de Paris from Metz by Maurice Barres. One significant section follows:

"We declare the autonomous Rhine republic to be founded in the bosom of Germany. It is a Pacific republic which is composed of the Rhineish provinces, Old Nassau, Hunsrück, Moselle and the Palatinate. The foundation rests on the following basis:

- "1. The frontiers will remain the same, including Birsfelden.
- "2. Changes in frontiers can be made only with the approval of other nations interested as established by a plebiscite.
- "3. The provisional government of the Rhineish republic is exercised by the undersigned delegates of the people.
- "4. Elections for the Rhineish national assembly will be held without delay, according to the methods of the German national assembly. Cologne is to be the capital of the new government and the national assembly will meet there. The provisional government will sit at Wiesbaden. Local authorities will continue to exercise control for the time being. The provisional government will take the place of the central government and the Prussian, Bavarian and Hessian governments.
- "5. Another passage shows the movement set to be separated, but anti-Prussian.

NO RELATION WITH OLD HAPSBURG EMPIRE

ST. GERMAIN, Monday, June 3.—Upon receiving the treaty from the allies here today, Dr. Karl Renner, chairman of the Austrian delegation, outlined briefly the history of the establishment of the German-Austrian republic and declared it had no relation with the former Hapsburg empire. He spoke as follows:

"For a long time the people of German-Austria were waiting in distress for this present day to come, which shall relieve the tension caused by the uncertainty as to their future state. We were looking for the hour of decision, because it was to render peace at the last to our hard tried country, and to offer us an opportunity to proclaim before this illustrious tribunal, the world's highest authority, what our country is and what the conditions are under which we may hope to organize the possibilities for existence of an independent commonwealth.

CEASED TO EXIST

"The Hapsburg monarchy against which the allied and associated powers have waged war and with which they have concluded an armistice, has ceased to exist. The twelfth of November, 1918, may be considered the day of its death. From this day on there was no monarchy any more, nor a big power over which we could build our state. There was no more the fatal dualism, neither an Austrian nor a Hungarian government, no army or any other recognized institution vested with public power.

"There remained only eight million, deprived of any public organization and overnight they created their own parliaments, their own government and their own armies; in short, their own independent states. In the same way as the other national states, our new republic, too, has sprung into life.

MADE DOUGHNUTS AT U. S. MILITARY BALL

Capt. Pearl Hamilton.

Capt. Pearl Hamilton, the adopted daughter of Commander Evangelical Booth, made a special trip to Washington recently to make doughnuts for the grand military ball given to open the Salvation Army drive in the national capital. The doughnuts were made in exactly the same way as those made by Capt. Hamilton for the soldiers in the trenches in France, and they are said to be the cause of the unprecedented success of the affair.

RECOMMEND THE RETURN OF ALL WIRES TO THEIR OWNERS

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 3.—Favorable report on the bill of Senator Kellogg, Republican of Minnesota, for the immediate return of the telephone and telegraph wires to private ownership was ordered today by the interstate commerce committee after the measure had been amended so as to include existing telephone rates for sixty days after final action by congress. The vote of the committee was unanimous.

No provision was made for continuing telegraph rates, which recently were increased by order of Postmaster General Burleson, whose action was sustained yesterday by the supreme court. Clarence H. Markay, president of the Postal Telegraph Cable Company, in recent letters to members of congress, urging immediate return of the wires, promised a twenty percent decrease in rates by his company.

Most advocates of the return of the wire properties had urged that a special date be set, with July 1 suggested by representatives of the companies, but the committee decided to adopt Senator Kellogg's plan for return "forthwith."

Chairman Cullenback announced he would call the bill up in the senate as soon as possible, with the hope of securing its passage late this week. The amendment providing for continuation of existing telegraph rates was designed, members said, to give time for state commissions to make rate orders and prevent any temporary disruption of service or financial difficulty for companies.

WANT RATE MAKING POWER RESTORED

WASHINGTON, June 3.—The senate interstate commerce committee by unanimous vote refused favorably reported a bill by Chairman Cullenback, restoring at once the rate making powers of the interstate commerce commission.

Anarchist Blown To Fragments When He Stubbed His Toe As He Neared The Home Of Attorney General Palmer

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 3.—Department of justice agents and police throughout the country today were hunting the organized band of anarchists who last night launched what they called an attempt to overthrow the government by assassination with high explosive bombs of government officials and prominent men opposed to the spread of organized lawlessness.

Explosions took place in Washington, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Newtonville, Massachusetts; Boston, Philadelphia, Paterson, New Jersey, and New York. None of the men for whom the bombs were intended was hurt, but one man, a watchman in New York, was killed, several persons were injured, buildings were wrecked, and in Washington one of the plotters himself was blown to pieces when an infernal machine intended for Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer, exploded prematurely.

The police have established that the dead anarchist, who probably was an Italian, came to Washington from Philadelphia and they have reasons for believing that the nationwide plot was conceived in and directed from that city.

Hope was high today by federal agents that the perpetrators of the crime might be apprehended. The identity of the anarchist who was killed, apparently has been established and the next step is to determine who were his associates.

The outrages committee last night were believed to be a sequel to the May Day bomb plot, when infernal machines were mailed to a score of prominent men over the country.

The explosions last night were accompanied by the scattering of anarchist literature, written by persons who were not illiterate. The literature contained the stock doctrines of radicals who have been preaching class war. The homes and persons of prominent officials and business men in Washington and elsewhere were being protected today against further outrages.

Leaders in both the house and senate said today they were ready to act immediately in passing any legislation necessary to deal with acts of violence designed to overthrow the government, but some believed existing law was sufficient.

Representative Mondell, the Republican floor leader, conferred today with Attorney General Palmer, who was understood to have reiterated that he did not regard additional legislation necessary.

Several measures dealing specifically with bomb outrages have been introduced in the senate and their sponsors declared further pressure would be exerted for their passage.

Several measures dealing with North Carolina, chairman of the senate committee, which has been investigating lawless propaganda, said today his committee would make no legislative recommendations in its report which will be completed Thursday. Several members, however, will present bills designed to punish those responsible for violence against the government.

The head of the dead anarchist was found on the roof of a house more than a block away from the scene of the explosion and taken down by firemen who were searching the roof tops for possible evidence.

Representative Mansfield, of Texas, was passing nearby when the bomb exploded. Flying fragments of the anarchist struck him and dyed deep crimson spots in the light summer suit he was wearing.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 3.—Washington police inspectors early today believed they had identified the man who was blown to pieces last night in an effort to kill Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer with a bomb, as an anarchist in Philadelphia. They also said they were confident the nationwide plot against the lives of government officials and prominent business men had been laid in that city.

A blood-stained conductor's identification check, found in front of Mr. Palmer's residence early today showed that the anarchist arrived in Washington at 10:30 o'clock last night from Philadelphia. He went directly from the union station to the Palmer home and only a few minutes before the explosion, he was seen alighting from a street car a few blocks away by U. S. Brigs, of Marion, South Carolina.

The police would not reveal the identity of the man, but they felt confident the facts they had gathered in their investigation since last midnight, would lead quickly to the apprehension of his associates who they believed also were responsible for the May Day bomb plot, in which many infernal machines addressed to government officials, members of congress and business men, were placed in the mails.

OF ITALIAN BIRTH

The anarchist apparently was of Italian birth of parentage. His scalp, found by the police at daylight, had upon it hair that was dark and curly, included in the heap of tattered, scorched and blood-stained fragments of clothing and articles belonging to the man was a much-thumbed Italian-American dictionary, indicating its owner knew little English.

By a strange freak of the explosion, the man's hat remained intact. On the great head was inscribed the name of "The Luna Brothers, Hatters, 919 South 8th street Philadelphia."

FATE FOILED HIM

The police are confident that the plot of the anarchist to blow up the home of the attorney general and kill its occupants would not have miscarried had he not in his excitement and in the darkness stumbled on a low coping six feet from the front door, where it was obvious he intended to place the powerful infernal machine. The neighborhood in which the explosion occurred is one of the most fashionable in Washington. Two doors away lives Senator Swanson, of Virginia. Directly opposite lives Rear Admiral Theodore F. Jewell. The home of Fletcher H. Bryn, Norwegian minister, adjoint of Admiral Jewell and Assistant Secretary of the Navy Franklin D. Roosevelt, lives a short distance away. Residents of the entire block were damaged by the explosion. Windows were shattered and the fronts of some of the houses were struck by pieces of flying concrete. Parts of the anarchist were blown through some of the windows. Several occupants of the nearby houses, including the son of the Norwegian minister, were thrown from their beds by the force of the explosion.

EXAMINING FRAGMENTS

Government experts today were making careful inspection and analysis of the clothing and other fragments gathered by the police, in an effort to determine the nature of the bomb and the explosive.

Additional precautions were taken by the police today to safeguard public men in Washington. Many homes and public buildings were being guarded. At the capital extra police were placed on duty and the rule against bringing packages of any sort into the capital and the house and senate office buildings was rigidly enforced. The same rule was being applied in other government buildings.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Wide-spread bomb explosions last night, apparently a sequel to the unsuccessful May Day outrages, when infernal machines were mailed broadcast from New York to government officials and men prominent in public life, was believed by officials here to be another more in an anarchist movement for the overthrow of organized government in the United States, rumors of which were said to have been called to the attention of members of congress and department of justice officials months ago.

Evidence that the plot was carefully planned, was contained in a

ONE KILLED IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, June 3.—One man was killed and several men and women had a narrow escape from serious injury early today when a bomb placed at a basement entrance to the home of Judge Charles C. Nott, Jr., of general sessions court, exploded. The front part of the Nott residence was blown out and houses near by on East 61st street were damaged. Judge Nott was not at home and Mrs. Nott, who was asleep on the second floor, was uninjured.

"William Boehmer, a private watchman, was blown to pieces, part of his body being found half a block from the scene of the explosion. He was identified by his two sons from particles of clothing and a ring of keys. The exact time of the explosion was learned when it was discovered that a large clock in the hall way had stopped at 12:25 a. m."

William Boehmer, a patrolman employed by the Helms electric Protective Company, who is believed to have discovered the plot and attempted to prevent the bomb from exploding, was blown to fragments. Parts of his body were found half a block from the scene. Identification was made possible by the finding of parts of his uniform in the debris. After an investigation, the police expressed the opinion that the explosion at the Nott residence was part of a nationwide plot by radicals to assassinate prominent men throughout the country.

POWERFUL BOMB

The bomb, according to Inspector Owen Egan, of the bureau of combustibles, was most powerful, judging from the force of the explosion and the damage it caused in the vicinity. Experts differed as to whether the bomb was loaded with dynamite or trinitrotoluol. Judge Nott with three daughters was at his summer home near New London, Connecticut. With Mrs. Nott in the house were the caretaker and his family. They suffered only from shock and minor injuries received when they were thrown from their beds.

The homes of Richard D. Lydon, a lawyer, and Dr. John G. McKew, adjoining the Nott residence, were badly damaged. All doors were broken and doors broken in by the concussion. No one in these houses was injured.

Directly across the street, army men, guests at officers club, maintained by the war camp community service, were awakened by windows crashing in. Portions of Boehmer's body were found in the club. Officers who served overseas, said that the force of the explosion equalled anything they had heard in France during the war.

Immediately following the explosion and the receipt of news dispatches telling of similar outrages in other cities, the police detailed strong forces to guard the homes of prominent men in New York.

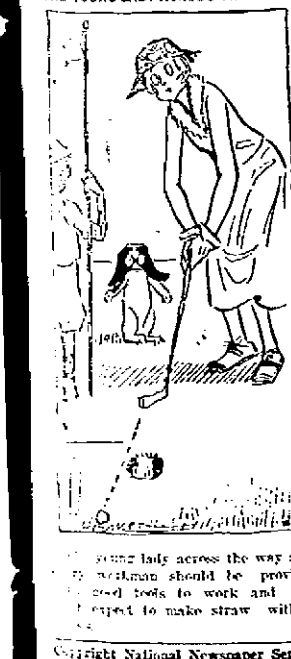

TRANS-CONTINENTAL FLIGHT

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 3.—Army to start transcontinental flight within a few days. Will start from Milledge, New York. North Platte, Nebraska, will be only scheduled to stop between Atlantic and San Francisco. Expect to make the trip in about 35 hours.

from the Story by Marion Orth

They were alone together—

It was the witching hour of midnight, the croon of the night wind and murmur of the waves against the rocks that hid them from the huge summer hotel were the music to which she had been skipping over the sands when first he saw her.

They were truants, these two runaways from the treadmill of life.

He had called and asked if he might join in her revel. Something in his voice reassured her. So they ran, and swam, and talked. Finally—"I dare you to dive off that rock," she said. When he came back she was gone. He had failed to learn her name or whence she came.

He haunted the beach nightly, without avail. She was the first woman, handsome, wealthy Roger Sloan had ever really wanted and failed to interest. He often passed her in the hotel corridors, but her maid's uniform and averted face masked her. Of course he finds her—

REPUBLIC IS SEEKING RECOGNITION

COBLENZ, Monday, June 2.—By the Associated Press.—Telegram indicating recognition of the Rhenish Republic, reported to have been established on Sunday, is desired, have been sent to commanders of the armies of occupation along the Rhine. They have been asked to inform the Rhenish Republic of the new government.
Dr. Dietrich, secretary of the Rhenish Republic, has been in Coblenz, Rhineland-Pfalz, since Sunday, after meeting in Metz, Lorraine, and after a visit to Wiesbaden, had declared the autonomy of the Rhenish Republic from June 1. After declaring that the Rhenish Republic is willing to complete immediate peace, the telegram states that the people of the Rhineland have no desire to escape their war obligations as far as reparations and that they are seeking recognition at the peace conference.

titude of maintaining public order and

Shoots Off His Toes

William Stumpling, aged 50, a well-known farmer, who resides three miles north of South Webster, will be included for life, the result of an accident he met with Monday while shooting crows near his home.

After he had killed several of these birds he started to lay his gun down, when in some manner the trigger was snapped. Most of the contents lodged in his right foot, three toes being shot away. Dr. A. G. Stevens, of South Webster, was called and attended the injured man.

Some apprehension is felt that Mr.
Stumpling's toes may have to be taken off, as the right side was practically shot away.

"NON-FEASANCE" CHARGE GROWING OUT OF ALLEGED GAMBLING, WITHDRAWN

Charges against Marshal W. L. Davis of New Boston presented to Council last week ago by Mayor Lawrence Davis were withdrawn by the Mayor at the regular meeting of New Boston Council Monday night, with Council concluding the Mayor's plan. Marshal Davis was charged with nonfeasance in the conduct of his office and with gross neglect of duty in connection with gambling at Millbrook street fair.
Marshal Davis was to stand trial at Council's meeting and the Council member was to see what the outcome of the trial would be. As soon as the Council acted favorably on the Mayor's suggestion the spectators left.
Marshal Davis he exonerated from all charges and that the same be spread upon the minutes. The motion was second being received. Mayor Davis then asked Council's sanction on his withdrawal of the charges. A motion carried that inasmuch as the Mayor had withdrawn his charges that such action should be made on the minutes to that effect. Mayor Fitch explained that he had had a talk with the officer and that the matter had been amicably settled.

Failure to pass ordinances vacating a strip of ground on Gallia street in favor of J. S. Davis and receiving a deal for ground created by J. S. Davis for the village leaves J. S. Davis with a new back building erected on Village property, a matter that will probably be fought out in the courts. It was the third meeting of the ordinances.

Some weeks ago J. S. Davis talked to members of Council about the strip of ground he needed for his new building and a strip of ground the Village needed for sidewalk purposes. According to J. S. Davis and Mayor Fitch, Mr. Davis acted on the verbal promise of Council that the necessary legislation would be passed when it came in and he went ahead with his building.
Mayor Davis said last night that possibly a nice points of law and that he did not intend to tear down his building. The building is to have a porch, a porch and a porch. A new porch was ordered after their meeting had been given that the ordinances could be passed and said that he would use the village considerable portion of the village. Davis has acted on the basis of his building on Village property.

Bad Complexions Peel Off At Home

The old with the poor complexion complains "I have to touch up my cheeks I am pale and a night and only my makeup saves me."
Now as a matter of fact, more women than ever before look like they have complexions. The practice certainly is unhygienic, now that the virtues of complexion are known. A new complexion has been known. It has been found that the way has wonderful absorbent power. It causes the faded or discolored skin to take off in minute almost impossible particles, so gentle, gradually, as it causes an improvement of the skin. In this way the old complexion is gradually removed—leaving all fine lines, wrinkles, freckles, blotches, redness, and other surface defects. A new complexion appears clear, smooth, young, and healthy—like skin such as no paint could ever create. No more more and wax, to be had at any drug store on convenient size package, is applied with soft brush and allowed to remain on over night.

FINAL ESTIMATES ARE APPROVED FOR 6.64 MILES OF SCIOTO TRAIL PAVING

The Federal government has approved the plans, and the final estimates have been received by Auditor S. D. Eckhart from the State Highway department at Columbus for the permanent improvement of 6.64 miles of road on the Scioto Trail, and the prospects are good that the actual work will be under way within a few weeks.

Two estimates were received for the proposed improvement, one providing for monolithic brick at a cost of $251,820.02, while the other estimate calls for the use of concrete at a cost of $216,953.22 and of the total cost the Federal government will pay approximately $20,000, or $10,000 for each mile, while the county pays the remainder.

The bonds for the county's share of the expense of the improvement are now ready for sale and will first be offered to the State Industrial Commission. When the bonds are disposed of, bids on the work will be asked for and the contracts let.

The commissioners favor building the road of brick, it is said. When this stretch of road is completed Scioto county will have an improved road extending from this city to the Pike county line, a distance of approximately 15 miles.

Baby's Locomotion

Merrill's father had just been learning to drive his car. The baby was just learning to walk, and she walked sideways. One day Merrill ran into the house and said: "Oh, mamma, come and see the baby skidding!"

much ahead of those in New York, Philadelphia and elsewhere. Copies of the pamphlet bearing the caption "Plain Talk" are in possession of the police and department of justice officials and may possibly furnish the only clue to the identity of the plotters. Printed on what likely was intended to be red paper, the pamphlets bear no distinguishing marks, however, and might easily have been printed in any small print shop.

Mr. Palmer has been active in urging anti-fascism measures, and the attack on him, as well as on the various court judges and officials, as representatives of law and order are obvious to the authorities, but government agents were at a loss to understand the attempted destruction of a church in Philadelphia.

The full list of cities in which explosions occurred were New York, Washington, Cleveland, Pittsburgh (two), Philadelphia (two), Boston, Davenport and Newburgh, Massachusetts.

Following so closely the outrages of last month, the anarchistic outbreak last night is expected to hasten action of bills now before congress dealing with suppression of anarchism and deportation of undesirable aliens. The attempt on the life of Attorney General Palmer has literally brought home to congress the seriousness of the matter, and members today showed marked increase in their desire to eliminate the radical element, which they charge is largely made up of foreigners who could be disposed of by deportation.

STUBBED HIS TOE
Detectives are positive that the stubbing of the anarchist's toe on a small concrete coping six feet from the front door of Attorney General Palmer's home, was solely responsible for the bomb player himself being blown to bits instead of the house and possibly its occupants.

The explosion blew out a section of the coping and dug a hole in the earth under it. The anarchist apparently was approaching the doorway from an angle and in the darkness failed to notice the low coping. When his toe met it, he tripped, the detectives believe, and the infernal machine he was carrying went off. Parts of the man were plastered on houses across the street.

Thousands today visited the street in which the attorney general's residence is located. The house itself and the street in front were being carefully guarded and scores of federal and police detectives were searching for and finding bits of clothing and other articles which belonged to the anarchist who was killed by the explosion.

DEAD ANARCHIST DESCRIBED
From an examination of the fragments of the bomb player, it appeared that he was a swarthy man with dark hair and slender build. He wore a collar of a well known make upon which was a laundry mark. From this the detectives hope to learn much, still, judging from the bloodstained pieces found, was black with a green stripe.

Federal agents are leading effort to identify the man as a means of identifying his associates. Aerial flares hung in the atmosphere and penetrated all the houses on the same block as the Palmer residence for an hour after the explosion. Lieutenant S. J. Mason, U. S. A., in authority on such explosives, who happened to be in the neighborhood at the time, declared that he felt that the bomb had been loaded with cordite, one of the most powerful explosives known.

RETIRED WRECKED
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 2.—Police and local authorities today were investigating the bomb explosion which in the last night badly damaged the residence of a Catholic church and the residence of a preacher in West Philadelphia. Three persons were injured, one of them seriously by the explosion, which occurred shortly before midnight and only a few minutes shortly after this another bomb was exploded in the west end district on the porch of a house directly across the street from Inspector Sibbey's home. Mr. Sibbey was thrown from his bed by the force of the explosion, which damaged many nearby residences. No one was injured in either instance.

PAMPHLETS FOUND
BOSTON, June 2.—Early investigations of the explosion last night at the home of Police Judge Albert J. Hayden in the Roxbury district, and that of State Representative Edward Powers, in Newtonville, tended to confirm the opinion of the police that the outrages were part of a nationwide plot.

Pamphlets entitled "Plain Talk" were found scattered outside the Hayden home and also in the wreckage. These were identical in language with those found at the home of Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer in Washington, containing such phrases as "Long Live the Social Revolution," "Down With Tyranny," and "A Time Has Come When the Social Question Solution can be Reached no Longer."

They were signed the Social Lighters.

State Chief of Police William Ladd, who visited the scene of the explosion today, expressed the opinion that a few bombs were thrown in the Hayden home rather than a clock bomb.

No one was injured in either explosion.

MEANT FOR MAYOR DAVIS
CLEVELAND, O., June 2.—Police officers today were looking for fragments of a clock bomb which was planned to be exploded at the home of Mayor Harry E. Davis last night. The bomb was not found, but it is believed to have been destroyed by dynamite.

The bomb was placed under a window, and, according to the police, was a time bomb. Prosser found indicate

ANARCHIST BLOWN TO BITS

pamphlet found at the home of Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer, whose home, in the fashionable section here, was partly wrecked by a bomb, giving warning that "a time has come when the social question's solution can be delayed no longer; class war is on and cannot cease but with a complete victory for the international proletariat."

The pamphlet, one of a large number scattered about after the bomb which had been intended to destroy Mr. Palmer, prematurely exploded and blew to bits the author of the crime, was signed "The Anarchist Fighters," and undoubtedly was intended as a signal to show the reign of terrorism was on.

Although apparently intended to do greater damage, the latest bomb explosion, from a standpoint of loss of life, appeared to have been but little more successful than those of May 1. Fatalities resulting, as reported today, were confined to the plunger himself at the Palmer home and at New York, where from one or possibly three persons were killed. In that case, as here, the body, or bodies, were so badly scattered, it was impossible to determine just how many corpses were involved.

As in the May Day attempts the bomb plot last night was directed, in a majority of cases, against public officials in various cities, men who have been active in suppression of organized lawlessness. As there was little difference in the type between the explosion, with the exception of that in Washington, the police and government agents believe the instructions of destruction were to be found to explode at about the same hour.

The fact that wearing apparel and unidentifiable fragments were found at the Palmer home, indicating the police that the bomb exploded just as the dynamite took it from its entrance near the front entrance of the building. This premature disarrangement of plans explained why the explosion here was so

How to Wave Hair to Appear Naturally Curly

It is a well known fact that the hair of a woman is the most important part of her appearance. It is the first thing that catches the eye, and it is the last thing that is remembered. Therefore, it is of great importance that a woman should know how to wave her hair so that it will appear naturally curly.

The first thing that a woman should do is to wash her hair with a good shampoo. This will remove all the dirt and oil from the hair, and it will make it easier to wave.

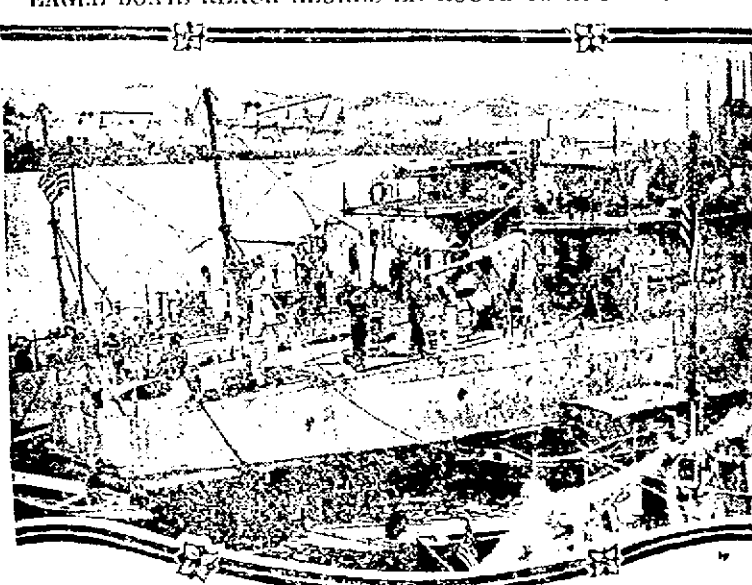

The second thing that a woman should do is to comb her hair with a wide-toothed comb. This will break up the tangles and make the hair more manageable.

The third thing that a woman should do is to use a good hair cream. This will keep the hair soft and supple, and it will help to hold the waves in place.

The fourth thing that a woman should do is to use a good hair brush. This will help to set the waves and make them look more natural.

The fifth thing that a woman should do is to use a good hair spray. This will keep the waves in place all day long, and it will make the hair look shiny and healthy.

EAGLE BOATS REACH AZORES EN ROUTE TO ARCHANGEL

Eagle boats in harbor at Ponta Del Gada, Azores.

Residents of the Azores who witnessed the arrival and departure of the A.C. U. S. sea plane, on the trans-Atlantic flight recently, have seen another product of American invention. The eagle boats designed by Henry Ford and ordered to Archangel to assist the U. S. forces in Russia, sailed at Ponta Del Gada, where the sea planes halted.

Helped Mrs. Kuhner Out Of Bed

New York Better Than Ever.
This statement is made by Mrs. H. M. Kuhner, of South Webster, Ohio: "For two years I suffered with a most severe case of Indigestion and Constipation. I was often laid up in bed for from three to four days at a time and suffered severely with pain in my stomach. I gained no relief until I tried Dr. Parker's Food for Indigestion and Constipation. Two boxes cured me. I am in better health than ever.
Every pain in stomach is but one symptom of indigestion and constipation. Gas in the stomach, bad breath, coated tongue, nervousness, headache, dizziness, trouble circulation and poor appetite are others relieved by Dr. Parker's Food. This Food is an aid to digestion, and it guarantees return of your health for it is treatment fails to stop those troubles."

Chautauqua Dates Are July 21-27

At a meeting of the official board, of the First Christian church, Monday night, it was announced the Chautauqua would be held in this city, July 21-27 inclusive, and that an advance rate would be here within a few days to work out several preliminaries. The Chautauqua will most likely be held on the Union street school grounds, the same location as last year's Chautauqua. The Hedges Lyceum Bureau, from whom the Chautauqua has been contracted, promises to furnish an excellent program, one in keeping with the 1918 success.

A ticket campaign will be launched shortly by the church, although the past-boards will not be here until two weeks before the Chautauqua opens. However, subscriptions will be taken, and the tickets delivered as soon as they arrive. The 1918 prices will prevail—$2.00 for adults and $1.00 for children. It has been decided to collect the year tax of 20 cents for adults and 10 cents for children when the tickets are delivered.

Chris Makris, New Boston Greek, and his wife engaged in a lively fight, the latter scoring Makris and the former scoring Makris and the woman and warning him to cease his association with her. Mrs. Pismis when accused, denied carrying Makris' picture in a pocket about her neck, but Chief Clark told the court he had seen the picture.

The trio were arrested Friday following a row which resulted, it is alleged, from Pismis discovering Makris making love to his American wife. The trouble occurred at the conference conducted by Pismis at Eleventh and John streets, and when the row started, Makris darted out a rear door and escaped, while Pismis and his wife engaged in a lively fight. The court scored Makris and the woman and warned him to cease his association with her. Mrs. Pismis when accused, denied carrying Makris' picture in a pocket about her neck, but Chief Clark told the court he had seen the picture.

GIRL'S CHARGE NOT SUSTAINED

Mayor Kops Monday morning dismissed the charges against John Hughes, young married man and Bryan Hamilton, single, Earlstown steelworkers, arrested for attacking Ollie Hamilton, 17 year old Kentucky girl, on the ground that the evidence adduced and unreliable and insufficient. The alleged assaults were committed during the month of March while the girl was employed as a domestic at the Hughes home. The charges against the defendants were heard Saturday and evidence was introduced by the defense showing that the girl is weak minded and that she told conflicting stories concerning the alleged assaults upon her by the two men.

The men claim they were accused in an effort to extort money from them. Judge Blair represented the prosecution opposed by Attorneys B. F. Kiebler for the defendants.

PLAN FOR INCINERATION PLANT

The board of health will hold a special meeting Wednesday afternoon for the purpose of discussing plans for providing the city with an incineration plant.

Committees from the Association of Trade, Business Men's Association and other civic organizations interested in the project have been invited to the meeting and the matter will be gone into thoroughly with a view of going before Council at an early date for an appropriation to build and equip the proposed plant.

That a garbage disposal plant to be located here is conceded on all sides. It has been suggested that the old Mill street pumping station be used to house the plant, the machinery to equip which will cost in the neighborhood of $10,000, it is said.

Steel Plant Winners In Opening Game Industrial League

N. & W. Aggregation Lost By Score Of Two To One, Selby-Solvay This Eve

GAMES THIS WEEK.

Selby vs. Solvay, Tuesday evening.

Drew vs. Excelsior, Wednesday evening.

N. & W. vs. Selvay, Thursday evening.

Excelsior vs. Steel Plant, Friday evening.

Selby vs. Drew, Saturday evening.

June 7.

Before a crowd of fully one thousand exciting fans and in a game that was as tight as a knifed dandelion on a packard, the Steel Plant team managed to win over the N. & W. aggregation in the opening game of the Industrial League at the new grounds seventeenth and Findlay streets, Monday evening. It was a game that still-the fast and whetted the appetite of the countless fans who showed by their presence and enthusiasm that the game is going to be well patronized. In fact while several errors were made, nevertheless the struggle was exciting from start to finish. Both teams battled along on even terms until the last inning of the play and when the Railroad lads showed across one run in the seventh frame it looked as though they had the contest all sewed up with a woolen string. Horner who twirled for the N. & W. was going great guns and up to the last inning had allowed but three hits. But in the seventh the Steel Plant lads were favored with a lucky break when Mantel, as pitcher, dropped a little looper from the bat of Smith, right fielder for the Steel Plant. This was the straw that broke the back of the Railroad team.

For Mowrey, with two strikes on him,

belled a line drive good for two sacks and brought Mr. Goodman, star receiver for the Steel Plant, Mr. Goodman lived up to his name of being a good man in a pinch for he slipped a one sack to left, scoring both

Smith and Mowrey and the game was ended right then and there.

The contest might well be placed in the little note book as a pitcher's battle. Shultz for the Steel Plant was in fine form, allowing but four hits and fanning eight batsmen. He need all he had, mixing on up to the discouragement of the Railroaders. It must be admitted that he was a little lucky in the second inning when poor couching at third cost the Railroaders at least one run. In this inning a double, single and an error failed to produce a run. Wells, the manufacturer of the double, being caught at the plate by a pretty chuck on the part of Bartlett. He should never have been sent home for it was pure suicide.

He was nailed at least twenty feet by the yard stick.

Until the seventh inning the Steel

Plant boys never had a chance to score, despite the fact that Horner was lavish with free passes. The only time conditions looked favorable to the Steel

Plant was in the first inning when with a man on first, John Weinberg, the old reliable, pivoted as pretty a double play as was ever seen and received the plaudits of the multitude and the congratulations of his old sidekick, "Peggy" Moore, who is not known to many.

RADICALS IN NEW BOMB OUTRAGE ATTEMPT TO KILL OFFICIALS

BOMBS PLACED IN MANY CITIES; PLOT TRACED TO PHILADELPHIA

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 3.—Washington police inspectors early today believed they had identified the man who was blown to pieces last night in an effort to kill Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer with a bomb, as an anarchist of Philadelphia. They also said they were confident the nationwide plot against the lives of government officials and prominent business men had been laid in that city.

A blood-stained conductor's identification check, found in front of Mr. Palmer's residence early today showed that the anarchist arrived in Washington at 10:30 o'clock last night from Philadelphia. He went directly from the union station to the Palmer home and only a few minutes before the explosion, he was seen alighting from a street car a few blocks away by C. S. Briggs, of Marion, South Carolina.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Widespread bomb explosions last night, apparently a sequel to the successful May Day outrages, when infernal machines were mailed broadcast from New York to government officials and men prominent in public life, was believed by officials here to be another move in an anarchist movement for the overthrow of organized government in the United States, rumors of which were said to have been called to the attention of members of congress and department of justice officials months ago.

Evidence that the plot was carefully planned, was contained in a pamphlet found at the home of Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer, whose home, in the fashionable section here, was partly wrecked by a bomb, giving warning that "a time has come when the social question's solution can be delayed no longer; class war is on and cannot cease but with a complete victory for the international proletariat."

The pamphlet, one of a large number scattered about after the bomb which had been intended to destroy Mr. Palmer, prematurely exploded and blew to bits the author of the crime, was signed "The Anarchistic Fighters" and undoubtedly was intended as a signal to show the reign of terrorism was on.

Although apparently intended to do greater damage, the latest bomb explosion, from a standpoint of loss of life, appeared to have been but little more successful than those of May 1. Fatalities resulting, as reported today, were confined to the plotters himself at the Palmer home and in New York, where from one, or possibly three, persons were killed. In that case, as here, the body, or bodies, were so badly scattered, it was impossible to determine just how many corpses were involved.

As in the May Day attempts, the bomb plot last night was directed, in a majority of cases, against public officials in various cities, men who have been active in suppression of organized lawlessness. As there was little difference in the time between the explosions, with the exception of that in

PATROLMAN IS BLOWN TO BITS BY A BOMB

NEW YORK, June 3.—One man was killed and several men and women had a narrow escape from serious injury early today when a bomb placed at a basement entrance to the home of Judge Charles C. Nott, Jr., of general sessions court, exploded. The front part of the Nott residence was blown out and houses near by on East 181st street were damaged. Judge Nott was not at home and Mrs. Nott, who was asleep on the second floor, was uninjured.

William Reelmer, a private watchman, was blown to pieces, part of his body being found half a block from the scene of the explosion. He was identified by his two sons from particles of clothing and a ring of keys. The exact time of the explosion was learned when it was discovered that a large clock in the hall way had stopped at 12:25 a. m.

William Reelmer, a patrolman employed by the Holmes electric Power Co., who is believed to have discovered the plot and attempted to prevent the bomb from exploding, was blown to fragments. Parts of his body were found half a block from the scene. Identification was made possible by the finding of parts of his uniform in the debris. After an investigation, the police express the opinion that the explosion at the Nott residence was part of a nationwide plot by radicals to assassinate prominent men throughout the country.

The bomb, according to Inspector Owen Dean, of the bureau of criminology, was most powerful, judging from the force of the explosion and the damage it caused in the vicinity. Experts differed as to whether the bomb was loaded with dynamite or trinitrotoluene. Judge Nott with three daughters was at his summer home near New London, Connecticut. With Mrs. Nott in the house were the caretaker and his family. They suffered only from shock and minor injuries received when they were thrown from their beds.

The homes of Richard D. Landon, a lawyer, and Dr. John C. McKee, adjoining the Nott residence, were badly damaged. All glass was broken and doors broken in by the concussion. No one in those houses was injured.

Directly across the street, army men, guests at officers club, maintained by the war camp community service, were awakened by windows crashing in. Portions of Reelmer's body were found in the club. Officers who served overseas, said that the force of the explosion

MAYOR OF CLEVELAND INTENDED VICTIM

CLEVELAND, O., June 3.—Police of Cleveland, Columbus and other cities today are searching for two men who are believed to have planted a bomb at the home of Mayor Harry L. Davis last night. The house was partially wrecked, but no one was injured. The bomb, which is believed to have been hastily charged with dynamite, was planted under a cellar window, and, according to the police, was a time bomb. Pieces found indicate that it was made of brass pipe.

The explosion was so terrific that it tore out practically the entire north side of the house. Windows in houses for several blocks were broken. Inside, the house would have been totally wrecked.

Mayor Davis was seated on the lawn on the opposite side of the house with his wife and several friends when the explosion occurred. His three year old son and a maid were the only occupants of the house.

Mrs. Davis had just joined the party when the explosion occurred. Shortly before she had been standing in the kitchen directly over where the blast occurred.

Two men, one of them carrying a suit case, were seen prowling around the house about an hour before the explosion. Less than half an hour before the blast, the mayor twice received mysterious telephone calls. Police believe the men tried to get him into the house at about the same time the bomb was registered to explode.

For several months the mayor has been a target for anonymous threatening letters, which he ignored.

PUT BOMBS IN WRONG HOUSES IN PITTSBURGH

PITTSBURGH, June 3.—A confusion of policemen and detectives was thrown around Pittsburgh today, in an effort to apprehend the perpetrators of two bomb explosions in different sections of the city shortly before midnight. The outrages were directed against H. S. Judge W. H. H. Thompson and W. W. Sibbey, chief inspector of the bureau of sanitation. That the explosions were in connection with a plot of radical agitators to kill men who have been active in their prosecution, is indicated in the fact that local authorities found hand bills, signed by "The Anarchistic Fighters," and similar to those discovered in Washington. The bombs in each instance were placed on the porches of residences near the homes of the public officials, and police authorities today expressed the opinion that the terrorists made mistakes in placing the infernal machines. The first explosion occurred next door to Judge Thompson's house. It wrecked one house and damaged other residences, including that of the jurist.

Shortly after this outrage a bomb was exploded in the west end district on the porch of a house directly across the street from Inspector Sibbey's home. Mr. Sibbey was thrown from his bed by the force of the explosion, which damaged many nearby residences. No one was injured in either instance.

RECTORY WRECKED BY BOMB

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 3.—Federal and local authorities today were investigating the bomb explosions which late last night badly damaged the rectory of a Catholic church and the residence of a jeweler in West Philadelphia. Three persons were injured, one of them seriously, by the explosions, which occurred shortly before midnight and only a few minutes apart. One man has been arrested.

Two men in a high powered motor car are said by the police to have hurled two bombs at the rectory, both of which exploded with terrific force, tearing away the front of the building and shattering the windows in the church next door. Several priests were in the rectory at the time, but none of them was injured. A woman and a young girl, who were passing the church, were slightly hurt.

First reports were that the bomb which wrecked the home of Louis Jazicki, a jeweler, was also hurled from an automobile, but upon investigation, it was found to have been planted in a fire place in the living room. The interior of the house was completely wrecked and Jazicki's aged grandmother, who was sleeping on the second floor, was seriously injured. Jazicki said he had no enemies and was at a loss to understand why his house should be selected for destruction.

OPENING STOCKS

NEW YORK, June 3.—Opening prices were mixed on the stock exchange today, with changes either way pronounced. In some instances, profit taking sales were responsible for recessions of one to two points. Attempts to continue the rise in other quarters caused a drop of three points in General Motors and advances of a point or more in Bethlehem Steel, Central Leather and American Woolen. U. S. Steel opened a shade higher, but soon ran off a point with sympathetic effect on other leaders. Mexican Petroleum lost three points.

Steel Plant Winners In Opening Game Industrial League

N. & W. Aggregation Lost By Score Of Two To One, Selby-Solvay This Eve

GAMES THIS WEEK.
 Selby vs. Solvay, Tuesday evening, June 3.
 Drew vs. Excelsior, Wednesday evening, June 4.
 N. & W. vs. Selvay, Thursday evening, June 5.
 Excelsior vs. Steel Plant, Friday evening, June 6.
 Selby vs. Drew, Saturday evening, June 7.

Before a crowd of fully one thousand spectators and in a game that was as tight as a knot, the Steel Plant team won over the N. & W. aggregation in the opening game of the Industrial League at the new grounds, Seventeenth and Findlay streets, Monday evening. It was a game that suited the taste of the spectators, for the contest was a close one, and the players showed the promise and enthusiasm that the game is going to be well patronized. In fact, while several errors were made, nevertheless the struggle was exciting from start to finish. Both teams battled along on even terms until the last inning of the play and when the Railroad lads showed across one run in the seventh frame it looked as though they had the contest all sewed up with a sudden strike. However, the Steel Plant boys were going great guns and up to the last inning had allowed but three hits. But in the seventh the Steel Plant lads were favored with a lucky break when Mantel, at third, dropped a little ball from the bat of Smith, right fielder for the Steel Plant. This was the Railroad lads' last chance, for the Steel Plant boys broke the back of the Railroad lads' defense with two strikes on him, and a line drive for two sacks and brought Mr. Goodman, star receiver for the Steel Plant. Mr. Goodman lived up to his name of being a good man in a pinch for he slugged a one sack to left, scoring both Smith and Mowrey and the game was ended right then and there.

The contest might well be placed in the little note book as a pitchers' battle. Shultz for the Steel Plant was in fine form, allowing but five hits and fanning eight batters. He used all he had, mixing 'em up much to the discouragement of the Railroaders. It must be admitted that he was a little lucky in the second inning when he coached at third cost the Railroaders at least one run. In this inning a double, single and an error failed to produce a run. Wells, the manufacturer of the double, being caught at the plate by a pretty chuck on the part of Bartlett. He should never have been sent home for it was pure suicide. He was nailed at least twenty feet by the yard stick.

Until the seventh inning the Steel Plant boys never had a chance to score, despite the fact that Mowrey was lavish with free passes. The only time conditions looked favorable to the Steel Plant was in the first inning when, with a man on first, John Weubler, the old reliable, pivoted as pretty a double play as was ever seen and relieved the plaudits of the multitude and the congratulations of his old side-kick, "Prege" Moore, who is not a bad fellow.

Art's Inspiration.
 A famous artist, who had not classes, had forbidden smoking in his studio. One day, after being out for half an hour, he re-entered the studio suddenly and saw one student with a lighted cigarette in his fingers, which he tried to conceal. With an air of assumed playfulness the artist approached the offender and said: "A strange crayon you have there, my friend. May I ask what you propose to draw with that?" "Clouds," replied the student.

Prehistoric Almsman.
 In the British museum there is to be seen an almsman which is 1,200 years older than the Christian era. It dates back to the reign of the Egyptian king, Ramees the Great.

He Came Back.
 The director of a zoological garden was on his holiday. He received a note from his chief assistant which closed thus: "The chimpanzee seems to be playing for a companion. What shall we do until you return?"

Optimistic Thought.
 The greatness of a state does not depend upon the number of its square miles.

Rigid Rules Are To Govern Games In Industrial League, Names Of Players Submitted

That the fans of Portsmouth may understand that the Industrial Baseball League will be conducted along the highest possible lines, the Times is printing below the rules governing the organization. City Bowling Tournament Will Start This Evening

No doubt a large crowd will be present this evening at the Play House when the Aurora No. 1 and the Steel Plant Specials will open the city tournament by bowling their five men events. These two teams are expected to set a pretty high mark for the rest of the aggregation to shoot at. Despite the fact that the weather will no doubt be of the torrid order and perspiration will be as frequent as flowers in June, the Aurora No. 1 will live up to its name. Patton, Noller, Spencer, Dooler and Sheridan. The Steel Plant Specials will look like this: Walters, Shaw, Wanless, Himes and Prodder. The games will start at 7:30, although there may be some little delay owing to the games to be played in the Industrial Baseball League. The schedule for the balance of the week is as follows:

Wednesday—N. & W. and John Millard's Mullards.
 Thursday—Aurora No. 2 and Reid's Ramblers.
 Friday—Troy Knobs and Tennant Five.
 Saturday—Open Date, but two teams can be accommodated for that evening.

The singles and doubles will be rolled next week, and the schedule will be arranged as soon as the entries for the five men event are in. The entrance will be $1 per event and the players will have a nice sum to shoot at if all the five men who have entered decide to shoot in the all events.

Eternal And Wanderer Entered In Big Derby

CINCINNATI, June 3.—Several big stables have had enough of the Eastern racing game and have either shipped to London or are making trucks in this direction. James McClelland arrived last night with Eternal and The Wanderer, and he plans to send both of them to the post in the Derby Saturday.

Frank Weir is another who has decided the Eastern game is too slow for his stable, so he is coming to take part in the big show. He will arrive today with Old Rosebud, Toto and several others in his string.

Many of the larger Kentucky strings arrived on the three trains that came up from Churchill Downs during the day.

Reds Win In Eighth

The Reds pulled a belated rally against the St. Louis Cardinals Monday and won, 7 to 4. Bill Hofer made a wild throw in the eighth inning and was immediately yanked by Manager Branch Rickey. The Reds used two pitchers and St. Louis three.

Just a Pet Name.

When I was assisting the county clerk in the office last summer a couple came in for a marriage license. As they knew no one in town they asked where they could find a minister. The clerk said he would call one and the ceremony could be performed in the inner office. The minister arrived and the ceremony started. When it came time for the bridegroom to put the ring on her finger he got it on the wrong one. She corrected him with: "Oh, you little pecker," and the ceremony proceeded.—Exchange.

The bout was a three-round affair and was staged in the Y. M. C. A. It ended in a draw. The men of the 339th are mostly from Michigan and Wisconsin.

Vail Finished Eighth

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., June 3.—Ira Vail was awarded eighth place in the 500-mile automobile race here Saturday, when officials today rechecked the scoring tape and necessarily officially that he should be credited with five more laps than was announced Saturday. His time was given as 6:12:42, and his average 80.35 miles an hour. This removed Race Thomas from among the first ten to finish.

A BIT OF STUPID BUNCOMBE

NO wonder there is a distressing lack of respect for our lawmakers and from that lack of reverence for the laws they make.

Legislators themselves show such gross disrespect for the intelligence of the people, or rather a flagrant conception that the people have no intelligence.

Just look at this as a single instance among many of the way in which they regard the public. Less than two weeks ago a lot of senators met in party caucus and among other things they resolved to do was to push the quick return of "our soldiers from Europe." In that same month of May, only a few days ago, three hundred and twenty-three thousand troops were embarked in France for America, that's almost exactly one-sixth of the boys that went over and survived to be brought back home. More than a third had already been landed before roses began to bloom. An equal movement for June and July—which is at least a certainty, since the transfer of troops is increasing every month—all the troops will be back before August wanes. On the other hand, if the senate moves with its habitual dignity and deliberation, it will be somewhere about next March before it would get down to an actual consideration of its avowed purpose to "hasten the return of our soldier boys."

But the matter of the noble purpose in mind was duly exploited in the public press and thus got to the people, so what does action amount to anyway.

THE CITY AND THE COUNTRY

THE more daylight scheme seems in a fair way to become as much exorcised in the country as it is welcome in the city.

In this country we arrive at the public will by the expression of the press and the utterance of views by those with whom we come in contact. By this token "more daylight" is altogether welcome in town. By the same token, in so far as we can judge, it is altogether unpopular in the country, or if it be not it is soon to be made so. A fight has sprung up in congress over the subject of a rider to the agricultural bill, which provides for the repeal of the measure by which the clock was arbitrarily shoved ahead for one hour for six months of the year. How much farmers personally had to do with the introduction of the rider doesn't appear anymore that it was evident who was backing the original enactment. Probably, it was some society, or a few gentlemen, who just as in the other instance, are acting on their own propensity, it being their effort to undo novel things, the same as the other fellows are prone to do them. Who started the fight, though, is no longer of consequence. It is now an issue on the surface, at least, between country and city, the former standing for repeal and the latter against. Both are moving upon congress with all the energy and influences at their separate command, the first with granges, agricultural societies and farmers institutes; the second with chambers of commerce, board of trades, industrial associations and labor unions. Between the two the poor congressman and the equally poor senator are being made to feel a berth between the devil and the deep blue sea would be one of infinite ease and rest by comparison.

But you don't understand the farmer's grievance. You can't understand how the new time would make any difference with him. Frankly, we can't either, since he works from daylight and hasn't any use for unions and so called business hours. But here is his side of the story. He does get up at daylight. Then he goes out and feeds the stock, milks the cows, does up the chores and eats breakfast. It is about half past eight by that time and so close to the new noon that he gets in about two and a half hours work in the fields in the morning, being called to dinner right away. That means he puts in about eight hours in the field in the afternoon, which isn't a fair division of his work—you see he has just got to eat at 12 o'clock, he hasn't leave the plow until it is getting close onto dusk, before which it is not ruble to have supper. Wherefore with more feeding, more milking and more chores thereafter to be done, the net result is that he loses about an hour's sleep a day on top of it all.

This reasoning doesn't exactly satisfy us, but we'll confess it appeals to an ear not altogether unsympathetic. We are not ravishingly enamored of this more daylight thing ourselves. Our only clear idea we have about it is that we go to bed an hour later on the clock, knowing it is one hour fast and we have to get up one hour earlier, with increasing yawning and growling that any man should invent such a fool proposition and fined enough fool legislators to impose it upon suffering humanity.

If Germany keeps up her "holler" much longer and louder, who knows but she may convince even Borah, Reed and Sherman that she is getting somewhere near what she deserves.

Let's see, what was that they sent out from Columbus about a certain department of state hugely increasing its revenue? Oh, well, it doesn't matter. The money will go as taxes always go and the people be none the wiser, nor the better, therefore.

Two hundred less canines in the city. That's something done anyway.

New York has a national bank with resources of near six hundred million dollars. Wouldn't you like to see that much money before you died?

THE WISHING PLANE

The children were so tired that they were hardly in bed in the cottage before they fell sound asleep. Booh curled up at the foot of the bed and went to sleep, too, but being a dog he slept with one ear and one eye open. Booh do that, you know.

It must have been after midnight when Booh heard foot-steps around the house. He trotted off to the window, jumped upon a chair and looked out. When he saw a man sneaking around the corner of the building he knew there was something wrong, so he just sat back on his haunches and barked as loud as he could.

Captain Brave and Prince Charles heard him just about as soon as the children did, and rushed to the window to look out. There was a series one look on their faces when they came back from the window.

"I am afraid, Prince, that they have hopes of capturing you this time," said Captain Brave. "As near as I can make out the house is surrounded."

Captain Brave told the children to hurry into their clothes. Ladybird and the Princess had dressed by this time and helped the children to dress. Jack was so excited that he had on his shoes before he had on his socks. Poor little Jane was still so sleepy she didn't know whether she was putting her clothes on or Jack's on, and to tell the truth she didn't much care. "The only thing we can do is to take to the passageway and get into the boat," said Prince Charles. "I have two or three mine in the house, but it would be useless to try and lock them off, and the women and kiddies might get hurt."

With Prince Charles in the lead, they all went down into the cellar, and into the underground passage. This time they made sure that Booh was along. Prince Charles realized that the little dog probably had saved all their lives, and so he carried Booh under his arm.

The men surrounding the house had the best idea that Prince Charles and Princess May had escaped, because not a light had been lit in the house and they had seen no one moving about, but as Captain Brave shut the door of the passageway behind him he heard the first of the men rapping on the kitchen door demanding admittance.

There was little chance though that they would find the secret passage if they broke into the house, because Prince Charles had concealed it so cleverly in the dark end of the cellar. It would be impossible to open the door anyway, unless some of the men happened to find the secret spring.

Prince Charles wasn't worrying at all as he led the way to the end of the tunnel and the dock. But as he started to open the door at the water's edge, he gasped and almost staggered. Through a crack in the door he had seen that the boat at the edge of the dock had been taken away, and grouped on the dock were half a dozen of his enemies. They did not know of the passageway, of course, but had hunted at the dock themselves to carry out their attack.

Captain Brave and the Prince were unarmed and both knew there wasn't any chance of overpowering the men and getting away, even if the boat was there for them to use.

How to get out of the tunnel and away in safety, was the question.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY

NEW YORK, June 3.—Those are Jack days inside the police precincts down at headquarters. Commish Enright at the instigation of the Mayor who the reporters dignify with the name of "Black Mike" has given orders that the police reporters must keep their noses out of the police headquarters, keep out of the chambers, search waste-baskets for hidden information in scraps of paper.

These days are gone. When the police reporters, some of whom have been covering headquarters for thirty-five years, strolled into the police building the other day they were approached by a uniformed policeman and told that they must keep moving and not remain around the corners of the corridors.

The reason? Well, there have been a lot of safe crackings within about a block of the police headquarters. The reporters killed the police for permitting crimes at their doorsteps. Dignity bruised. Zowie! Out go the reporters. And then the other night some safe crackers crossing Fulton street—the local morning and blew a safe in Wall street. The police tried to suppress the story leaked out. The police are going to stop these leaks by suppressing reporters. (Business of suppressing a couple of choruses.)

The Dead Line at Fulton street was established to keep the crooks out of the great financial center. Every known crook was arrested to instant effect. Fulton street. He got a long swim up the river for it too long for the police would dig up old charges. The crooks wisely have kept away. But they are growing bolder and the police are not anxious to let it be known that their vigilance is slackened.

In other words the police expect to put a censorship on news—as right as that imposed in Darkest Russia. But they will not do it. I like policemen. When I was a boy I wanted to be one. But there is no denying that in the profession of policing there are a lot of "fat heads." When they attempt to suppress news from a lot of trained news hounds they are attempting the impossible.

There is a certain young sport writer in Gotham—brilliant and perhaps susceptible—who has been cracking about Lavinia lately with a charmingly pretty movie star. The devotion excited much comment among the literary. And then the romance seemed to have languished and blossomed for a few weeks only. And it died. Perhaps the reason may be found in this little lament in the sport writer's column the other day. Here it is:

I only slipped on Broadway once. Yo ho! Yo ho!

I know I look like quite a dunce. Yo ho! Yo ho!

I thought that a butterfly loved me. And dwelt in a world of ecstasies. But the butterfly proved a big queen bee!

Yo ho! Yo ho!

The well known gambles of Broadway and the cross streets suddenly disappeared from their usual haunts recently. It became such a mystery that several newspapers commented upon it. Then several days later word drifted back from Ft. Worth, the new city metropolis, that the gamblers had decided to try their luck in the pitch center of the Texas oil fever. Where people speculate, gamblers believe they will always gamble. The poker sharp, the roulette wheel and the red rollers of dice were tipped off by a confederate they sent on a scouting expedition and he reported that pickings looked promising.

WOMEN AND GIRLS NEEDED ON FARM

COLUMBUS, June 3.—Women and girls to help in work about farm homes are needed. T. D. Phillips, farm help specialist of the U. S. Employment Service, announced today.

Approach of the busy season on the farm makes necessary additional help for the farmers' "women folks," who take over many chores during this period.

Phillips suggested that this work might appeal to some of the co-eds in colleges and universities of the state who desire a change from their school work.

EMPLOYMENT SITUATION IMPROVES

Approximately 8000 persons were placed in employment during the week of May 11 by the 27 U. S. employment offices in Ohio, reports today showed.

This figure, which is practically the same as the week before, indicates that the improvement in the employment situation during the past few weeks is still maintained. During the past two months placements have jumped about 20 percent.

Figures for the week were: Applicants, 14,915; Jobs listed, 11,365; persons referred to work, 9,927; persons referred to jobs, 8,162.

IN THE DAY'S NEWS

ENSIGN HERBERT ROOD. Ensign Herbert Rood of Cleveland, Ohio shares the triumph of the NC-4 which has put American first in the accomplishment of transatlantic flight to Europe.

His contribution to the success was not alone in his service as radio operator on the NC-4. He assisted by the development of the radio compass or direction finder used on all the NC planes.

By wireless communication with ships the direction finder keeps the plane from drifting out of its course. It enabled the NC-4 to follow accurately the long ribbon of naval vessels which marked the course from Newfoundland to the Azores, and from there to Portugal.

Second Halo—I dreamed last night that I was working and I woke up with a headache.

Her Reason

Maid—Well, I had to have a thirteen job and I thought I'd get over with it."

Personally Conducted Tempest

"I understand that your recent speech aroused a storm of criticism."

"Yes," replied Senator Sorghum, complacently. "It sounded like some storm, didn't it? I was behind the scenes supervising the sheet-iron thunder and the artificial lightning myself."

The New Relationship

"Do you have any trouble with your cook?"

"No," replied Mrs. Cresswell. "We have studied her ways carefully and now understand what she expects without her having to speak to us about it."

Soldier Boy Meets With A Distressing Accident

At the close of his first day's work still held the foot dangling, was seen returning from the scene of the accident. Wright, 1906 High street, after working Monday at the Terminal, started to swing onto the back of a street car on Rhodes avenue, when his foot, being moist, slipped, and he lost his balance, falling under the wheels of the trailer which followed. His right foot was ground off just above the ankle.

HEAT CAUSES PAVING TO "EXPLODE"

The intense heat Monday caused the paving on Gallia street, New Boston, to "explode." The great heat caused the paving to "explode" at the foot of Hill street. The heat also caused an upheaval of the paving at the head of Ohio avenue but it did not break open yesterday. The street committee of New Boston has let the work of repaving to Kelley Bros., who will make repairs at once.

Learns New Punches

Mayor Kaps Monday night discussed the cases of August Hegan and Dave Jackson, East End young men, who were arrested for beating Philip Fyffe, a returned soldier, during an altercation on May 25. Fyffe, who got the worst of the encounter, denied he was drunk on the day of the trouble, but admitted he started in to show the boys some new tricks he learned in the army. He claimed he never got a chance to demonstrate the new moves, but instead, he declared, they taught him some new fangled punches which put him down and out. Hegan and Jackson were given $10 suspended fines and warned to watch their conduct in the future.

BOMBS PLACED IN MANY CITIES

Washington, the police and government agents believe the instruments of destruction were to be thrown to explode at about the same hour. The fact that wearing apparel and anathematic literature were found at the Palmer home, indicated to the police that the bomb exploded just as the dynamite took it from the entrance under the front entrance of the building. This was the arrangement of plans explained why the explosion here was so much ahead of those in New York, Philadelphia and elsewhere.

"HEALTH OF CITY" IN GENERAL GOOD; SOME BAD PLACES, BOARD LEARNS

"Some parts of the city are in a bad sanitary condition due to many bad vaults and the draining of sink and other filthy water into the streets and alleys," Sanitary Officer W. W. Watson said in a report made to the board of health at its meeting Monday afternoon. The officer appealed for some action toward enforcing the ordinance relating to the compulsory tapping of sanitary sewers and by-laws enacted as a health measure, that every property owner be required to have a kitchen sink properly connected to the sewer to prevent filthy water from being drained into the streets.

Watson declared that 7 cases of typhoid fever, 1 case of smallpox, 2 cases of tuberculosis, 3 cases of trachoma, 1 case of cancer and 1 of hydrophobia, the face with fatal termination, have been traced to specific causes and that the board of health should collect from 16 different districts furnishing their milk supply and an very glad to report a most excellent quantity of milk, all above the required standard and several as high as 4 per cent butter fat content. "The boys have all been vaccinated beyond the 200 ft. limit," Watson declared, "and no more and the city is in a very good sanitary condition. I am a person who believes that no man is superior."

"LOVER" FINED AND SO WAS HUSBAND WHO CHASED HIM FROM HIS HOME

Chas. Makris, New Boston, Greek, and Ole Pismos were found guilty of disorderly conduct at a session of police court last night and Mayor Kaps fined each $25, and George Pismos, foreigner, husband of the woman, was convicted on a similar charge, but was fined only $10.

FIRE DESTROYS FULLERTON GARAGE

Fire completely destroyed the garage owned by Lyman Warnock, at Fullerton, late Monday night. The origin of the fire is unknown. Mr. Warnock resides across the street from the garage and in stepping out on the front porch noticed a light burning brightly in it. He at once investigated and found the place on fire. He summoned the neighbors and a bucket brigade was quickly formed. Two machines were in the garage. The men succeeded in getting one machine out, but the other was completely destroyed. Both were owned by Mr. Warnock. The building was owned by W. W. Warnock, of Ashville, N. C.

The alleged assaults were committed during the month of March while the girl was employed as a domestic at the Hughes home. The charges against the defendants were heard Saturday and evidence was introduced by Attorney B. F. Kimple for the defendants.

At a meeting of the official board of the First Christian church, Monday night, it was announced the Chautauqua would be held in this city, June 21-27 inclusive, and that an advance man would be here within a few days to work out several preliminaries. The Chautauqua will most likely be held on the Fuller street school grounds, the same location as last year's Chautauqua. The Bohemian Bureau, from whom the Chautauqua was secured, has been contracted, and the tickets delivered as soon as they arrive. The 1919 prices will be $2.00 for adults and $1.00 for children. It has been decided to meet the war tax of 20 cents for adults and 10 cents for children when the tickets are delivered, thus making the trouble of purchasing, and stamps at the first performance, in order to make the Chautauqua the most desirable of the season. It is expected that the organization will have to do that before a share in any of the profits. Last year the church made something over $100 and it is hoped to do even better this year.
